

Can your child see and hear well?

Over the years we have discovered that some of our Title I students struggle with learning to read because of vision and hearing issues. Please have your doctor check your student to be sure your child is ready to learn!